Catholic Charities, Refugee Resettlement Program

"For I was a stranger...and you welcomed me." Matthew 25:

Imagine for a moment, that your life has been torn apart by war. Imagine that you've lost your job, your home, and possibly your family. You've fled the country, and find yourself in a strange land, with no family, no friends, and little knowledge of the language or culture.

Who will welcome the stranger?

Who Are the Refugees

They are people who "owing to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular group, or political opinion is outside the country of his nationality and is unable to or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of the country." (1951 United Nations Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees)

Since World War II, the Catholic Church has been engaged in the resettlement of refugees. During the past three decades alone, over one million refugees have been resettled through the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

The work of Catholic Charities' Resettlement & Immigration Services is essentially rooted in the tradition of compassion & in the belief that the strength of the U.S. lies in its diverse ethnic & cultural heritage.

Resettling refugees provides an extraordinary opportunity for Americans to take an active part in offering a caring & supportive environment for the refugees as they begin new lives. In concrete terms, it means reuniting families, arranging volunteers, greeting refugees at the airport, finding & furnishing housing, introducing refugees to their new community, providing English as a Second Language instruction, registering children in schools, employment counseling and job training and placement
